

Dylan Mackenzie

Highland based youth climber aged 14, has been climbing for ten years both inside and out. Dylan's passion for all styles of climbing is constant throughout the year and he has explored most of Scotland's finest climbing areas. With his father and brother, Dylan has climbed many trad first ascents in the west highlands up to E25c.

Foreign expeditions include Fontainebleau many times and he has on sighted F7A.. He has climbed multi pitch sport routes in the Todra Gorge, Morocco up to F7A

Dylan is very keen to climb around the world and his enthusiasm, ambitions and goals far outweigh his fathers wallet.

Competition results

5th place 2004 British youth climbing championships
4th place 2005 British youth climbing championships
British champion 2006, British youth climbing championships
British champion 2007 British youth climbing championships
British champion 2008 British youth climbing championships
2008 (Invited onto British Junior Climbing Team as an aspirant member)
2nd place 2009 British youth climbing championships

Scottish youth climbing championships setup in 2008

Scottish champion 2008 Scottish youth climbing championships
Scottish champion 2009 Scottish youth climbing championships

Scottish Bouldering champion 2008 Scottish youth Bouldering championships

Scottish Bouldering champion 2009 Scottish youth Bouldering championships

World open dyno comp Sheffield 2008 (adult category 21st place)

Recent competition results:

1st place -- British team trials (Youth B) 2009, 2010

2nd place - scottish youth climbing chamionships
Scottish Tooling Series 2009

Im proud to be part of Team GB and hope to climb well and am looking forward to meeting my climbing friends from around the world.
Bring It On !
Dylan